FAMILY MATTERS...STEVE BAGGETT

Great Sunday Night Attendance—Thanks to all who responded so positively to the “pep talk” we shared Sunday morning at the conclusion of the service regarding Sunday night and Wednesday Night attendance. We were blessed with wonderful attendance Sunday night. There were 469 at Walnut Street and 89 with our youth group giving us a total of 558. What a blessing!

New Wednesday Classes—On Wednesday, March 3, we started a new quarter of classes in our Adult Education Department. These classes are listed below. Please note also the two classes which are available on Wednesday morning taught by Bebe Farrell and Wednesday afternoon taught by George Caudill, which I failed to mention Sunday morning.

Room	Topic	Teacher
Aud	David: His Life and Songs	Williams, Harmon, Nabors
101	Fundamentals	Bobby Cathey, Mark Horsley
103	Prayer, (Ladies)	Ruby Williams
Chap	Give The Winds A Mighty Voice	Baggett, Haslam
406	Everything Is Spiritual	Jeremy Spencer
408	Jerusalem Class	T. J. Pass
410	Understanding Islam	Bob Williams
Chap	10 AM (Ladies), Timothy	Bebe Farrell
412	4 PM (Adults), The Church	George Caudill

Marriage Ministry Initiatives—Our Marriage Ministry, under the leadership of Steve Moore and Kevin Galloway, is working diligently to help strengthen marriages. Please take note of the following special opportunities.

Sunday, March 7: Bud Lambert, Walnut Street’s Counseling Minister, will preach and teach the Auditorium Bible Class on the subject of “Strengthening Marriages.”

March 12-13: Transform Your Marriage Seminar at Walnut Street, Friday from 6-9pm and Saturday from 8am—4pm, Costs are $20 per couple with Saturday lunch, $10 per couple with workbook only, FREE attendance without lunch or workbook; R.S.V.P by March 11 to the church office or by e-mail to skmoore63@comcast.net and put “Count me in!” on the subject line.

Coming Soon: Marriage Mentoring Coffee Club, experienced married couples who are willing to mentor younger couple in this vital ministry.

For more information on all of these initiatives, please see Steve Moore or Kevin Galloway.

Card Ministry Thoughts--There is something powerful about the written word. Word processing is neat and clean but a hand written note is personal in a way that typing can ever be. That’s what is special about the Card Ministry initiated by Ruby Williams’ class.

Each week they facilitate opportunities for each of us to reach out and touch members and friends alike with the personal, written word. So many heartfelt thoughts of encouragement communicate that we care. Sometimes just knowing that others know of our situation provides the acknowledgement that affirms a struggle, a heart ache, or even a celebration. God created us to be people of fellowship. We are strengthened by presence and weakened by absence. If one note is powerful a bag full is overwhelming.

Here is your “written word” invitation to participate each week in the Card Ministry. Just check the table on your way through the gathering room for an opportunity to make someone’s day.

Shower Teams Are A Blessing—Well over 20 years ago Bebe Farrell, Emma Hall, and Ruby Williams saw a need, formed a team and met it. Since then Ruby has quietly organized showers for literally hundreds of grateful recipients. In another great example of “Retiring to” instead of “Retiring from” Ruby passed this important service to JoAnne Brown as she continues her newest involvement with her class in the card ministry. Thank you ladies.

Prayers are requested for:

- Ruby Reynolds, has been released from the hospital and is doing well following a mild stroke. Jim and Ruby are expected home Friday from Hawaii.
- Gladys Tuberville, who has a brain tumor (request by Derik Tinsley)
- Debbie Cape, (sister of Lisa Wright) who is awaiting biopsy results
- William Stacey, who is not doing well and Sherrie Turbeville as she cares for both her parents
- Ecloy Baker, who is in NHC room 126A
- Christine Sherrod, who is scheduled for outpatient surgery at St. Thomas
- Pam Tyler, (niece of Evelyn Adkins) begins chemotherapy this week
- Loretta Stanford, (daughter-in-law of Helen Stanford) is scheduled for outpatient knee surgery today at Baptist
- Ellis Wilson, (husband of Dorinda Wilson) who is having liver and thyroid problems

FAMILY NEWS

Those of our number who are expectant mothers:
Karen Greene (4/11); Fara White (4/25); Ashley Estes (5/20); Nicki Long (5/30); Jamie Brown (8/12)

Note of Thanks:

Dear Walnut Street,

The family of Ron Gullede would like to thank you for your prayers, cards, and those of you who came to the visitation of our "Mee-Maw Greenup" at the funeral home. Your acts of kindness will always be cherished by our family.

With Christian love, Ron Gullede & Family

The Fellowship Ministry would like to thank everyone who helped make last Wednesday evening's fellowship meal a great success. A special thanks goes out to Elva Gentry and her kitchen crew for the preparation and serving of a great meal. There were countless others who pitched in to help in so many ways. Again, thank you.

To my Walnut Street family,

I would like to thank you for the many acts of kindness shown during the illness and death of my brother, Clovis Adcock. The prayers, calls, cards, visits, and food were most appreciated. I am very fortunate to be a part of such a loving and caring church family.

Please continue to remember me in your prayers as I deal with being shut-in and away from my church family.

In Christian love, Mavis Beasley
