FAMILY MATTERS—Steve Baggett

Please extend a warm Walnut Street welcome to Caleb Boggs! Caleb is serving as our Ministry Intern this summer. He is a senior Bible Major at Freed-Hardeman University. His family lives in Neosho, Missouri, where his father preaches for the Hillcrest Church of Christ. Caleb will be a very busy young man this summer: preaching three times at Walnut Street, preaching three times at the Lee's Chapel congregation, speaking at our next Food For Thought lunch, attending two days of Horizons Camp at FHU, teaching several Bible classes, visiting members in their homes with Dan Erranton, participating in the upcoming Philippines Mission Trip, and accompanying our youth on their VBS trip, as well as a number of other duties as they come along.

Special thanks to John and Robyn Lampley for hosting Caleb for lunch last Sunday. If you would like to have a meal with Caleb, you may contact him at the church office (615-446-2909) or his cell phone (417-312-3658).

THOUGHTS FROM CALEB

Friends, I am so humbled to be at Walnut Street this summer. Thank you for the incredible kindness and hospitality you have already showed me. I look forward to growing closer to God and together with you throughout the next few months. If I haven't met you yet, I hope to soon! If I have met you, please don't be offended if I accidentally introduce myself again. If I can serve you in any way at any point this summer, do not hesitate to ask.
