5th Sunday Add-a-Dish Meal!

Any time a family gathers for a meal is special. An add-a-dish is that unique opportunity for a time of togetherness as a church family. Please plan to bring food for your family, "and then some." That will ensure that the first person in line, as well as the last, will have plenty. Our Fellowship Ministry has a plan to move the line quickly so that the wait time is at a minimum.

FAMILY NEWS

We wish to congratulate Paris Ketron, who was baptized during last Sunday's worship service. Paris is the granddaughter of Jeanette Mays.

We extend our sympathy to Randy Tidwell and family in the loss of his sister-in-law, Caroline Tidwell. Funeral services were held Thursday at White Bluff Church of Christ. She was the niece of J.C. Tidwell and Snow & Eula Tidwell.

Those of our number who are expectant mothers:

Emily Bouldin (7/29)

Note of Thanks

Dear Brothers and Sisters at Walnut Street

I am writing to thank you for your support of the recent "Is Genesis History? Movie and Conference. To those of you who saw the movie in theaters, donated to the conference, and especially to those who took us to and from the airport, I offer my deepest gratitude. As a new graduate student going for my PhD in biomedical sciences, I found the conference to be a source of great encouragement. To meet and speak with these experts with such knowledge and wisdom was a huge blessing to me! To know that I am not alone in my beliefs in the vast (and sometimes scary) world of academia was likewise a blessing. At this moment, I am unsure of the path the Lord has laid out for my life—do we ever really know? But thank you for your role via this conference in shaping my goals and encouraging me to remain faithful where the Lord has placed me. May God reward your generosity and kindness. Sincerely, Marisa Tillery
